

Central University of Technology, Free State

INTERNATIONAL OFFICE

The European Union's Erasmus Mundus programme for South Africa seeks to enhance capacity building in higher education by funding mobility programmes in the context of academic co-operation between European and South African universities.

Funding for these programmes covers the costs of:

- Accommodation;
- Airfare;
- Course fees;
- Living expenses; and
- Health Insurance.

Programmes are organised into different consortia of universities. The Central University of Technology, Free State (CUT) is a member of two of the three consortia that were approved for South Africa.

The consortia are:

AESOP (A European and South African Partnership on Heritage and Past):

AESOP, co-ordinated by Paul Sabatier University in France, offers exchange and full-time mobility programmes to students and staff at the University of Lisbon, Portugal; University of Liverpool; John Moores University in England; University Juan Carlos in Madrid, Spain; National Technical University of Athens, Greece; University of Latvia, Latvia; University College in Dublin, Ireland; the Free University of Brussels, Belgium; Politechnic University of Bucharest, Romania; University del Salento, Lecce, Italy; and Universidad Pompeu Fabra in Barcelona, Spain.
